2011 Proxy Instructions

If the name of the appointee is not filled in, the instrument of proxy will be deemed to be given in favour of the chairperson of the meeting to which it relates. If you do not allocate preferences for voting, the chairperson will exercise their discretion in casting your vote as proxy. If, however, you allocate preferences the chairperson will cast your vote in accordance with those preferences. Please see the notes below in relation to allocating your preferences.

Allocating preferences for voting

Tick the relevant boxes if you wish to direct the proxy how to vote. If no tick is made the proxy may vote on the resolution or abstain from voting as the proxy thinks fit.

With respect to the election of directors, you are entitled to cast as many votes as there are vacancies for director's positions in your membership class. However, a member must not cast more than one vote for each candidate in a particular class. For example, for the Demand Class you may vote for two candidates only, by ticking the box next the name of your two preferred candidates.

Signing the form

The proxy form must be hand signed by the person registered as a member personally, or by a duly appointed attorney or agent. If a proxy is given by a corporation, the proxy must be executed by the person who is that member's nominee on the auDA membership list. If a proxy is executed by an attorney of a member, the attorney must declare that the attorney has no notice of revocation of the power of attorney and the relevant power of attorney, if it has not already been noted by auDA, must accompany the form of proxy.

Lodging the form
